Post-Monterey, a Dose of Desert Tranquility

It's easy. That's how I feel about Arizona after the madness of Monterey.

While the distances between the events in Arizona are not inconsequential, you don't have to deal with the mind-boggling mess that is Highway 1 through Carmel four, five or six times a day.

Aside from the auctions, there is only one major event, the Arizona Concours (to which Donald Osborne and I will be returning for our third year together to emcee). It's at the Biltmore, there are a limited number of tickets and there's plenty of parking. You're not worried about getting trampled by hordes of photographers as you move from car to car.

While the size of Barrett-Jackson can make it intimidating to navigate, once you've got your parking space (and saved its location in your smartphone), the rest is a breeze. There's always plenty of space to walk around, and if you're hungry, simply buy a deep-fat-fried turkey drumstick the size of a baseball bat and munch away.

I like going to Arizona in January — this is my 29th consecutive year. I enjoy the hot sun during the day and brisk desert air at night. I like having nothing but auctions on my mind — no vintage races, no car shows (after the opening concours), no parades. Nothing but one car after the other crossing the block — and most likely being hammered sold.

My advice is simple. Pack cold-weather gear for the nights and sunscreen for the days. Get all your bidding credentials, along with your financial lines of credit, sorted out in advance. Make your hotel and dinner reservations now; otherwise you might be staying far away and eating at Denny's.

Pick up your SCM 29-year pin at our booth at the Gooding sale. There will be SCM and ACC staffers at all the events — say hello and tell us your story about the cars you are buying and selling.

See you in the desert! — Keith Martin ■

The Arizona Concours offers a change of pace from the auctions

Gooding & Company star car — 1925 Bugatti Type 35 Grand Prix

Gooding & Co.

Gooding

David Gooding
President and Founder,
Gooding & Company,
Santa Monica, CA

Star Car 1925 Bugatti Type 35 Grand Prix (estimate: $2,600,000–3,200,000).

Standard Oil heir Wallis Clinton Bird purchased this Bugatti Type 35 Grand Prix, chassis 4487, new in Paris.

Mr. Bird garaged the car at his famed Farnsworth mansion in Long Island, NY, which he had recently purchased. He raced the Type 35 just a few times in the newly formed ARCA events (Mr. Bird's ARCA racing plaque is still affixed to the dash) before he passed away in 1941 in an aviation accident.

The Bugatti sat among his stable of exotic automobiles until 1961, when his wife, Marjorie Winifred Bird, passed away. Following her death, the estate held the "Car Auction of the Century," where pioneering collector Henry Austin Clark purchased Chassis 4487.

The current owner purchased the car from Clark over 35 years ago, and it has been in his loving care ever since. With just three owners from new and in exemplary condition, this car represents the purest expression of the original Type 35 Grand Prix.

It is a sensational example retaining its original chassis, bodywork, engine and distinctive early production features.

Sleeper Car American Motors AMX/3 by Bizzarrini (estimate: $900,000– $1,300,000).

In 1968, in an effort to save AMC, the company pivoted its focus to more performance-based products that could better compete with foreign competition and infuse excitement in the brand.

Richard "Dick" Teague, the head of design at AMC, was tasked with designing a mid-engine sports car, which resulted in the AMX/3 program.

The program collaborated with other firms, which included BMW, ItalDesign and Bizzarrini, to assist with the engineering and design elements of the AMX/3. This example is the fourth built, known as the Monza car for the aerodynamic development that Bizzarrini put it through at the racetrack in 1970, testing that resulted in a top speed of 170 mph.

After an extensive concours-quality restoration, this AMX/3 won First in Class at the 2016 Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance in the featured Bizzarrini class. This is a rare opportunity to own a piece of American automotive history.

Chrysler CL Imperial dual-windshield phaeton by LeBaron is surely the most significant American Classic on offer during this year's Arizona car week. As the personal car of legendary designer Ralph Roberts, this one-off, custom-built Imperial was his statement of what the future held. This is essentially "Chrysler's Y-Job." Its low-mounted headlamps, bold fenders flowing unencumbered by side-mounted spares, and aerodynamic skirts shrouding the rear wheels put the design at least a decade ahead of its time. Most recently, the beautifully restored Chrysler won Best of Show at the Concours d'Elegance of America and Best in Class at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance. Add to that its former residence in the renowned Milhous and Otis Chandler collections, and it doesn't get much better than this.

Sleeper Car 1990 Mercedes-Benz 190 E 2.5-16 Evolution II (chassis number WD-B2010361F734005; estimate, $225,000–$275,000).

My sleeper pick for our Arizona sale is the 1990 Mercedes-Benz 190 E 2.5-16 Evolution II, the homologation model of the car that won Mercedes-Benz the 1992 DTM manufacturer championship, as well as 1st, 2nd and 3rd place in the driver's championship.

Russo and Steele's enhanced new venue at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick

Already boasting incredible aerodynamics developed at the University of Stuttgart, it's what's under the hood that makes this a sleeper. The advanced 16V cylinder head was designed and cast by Cosworth — creators of the dominant engines for F1 and Indy Car — and is responsible for the car's nearly 100-hp-per-liter output.

A few examples of the 502 built have traded hands in the U.K. over the past 18 months and have attracted strong interest and results, with collectors beginning to realize just how special they really are.

As the first example ever presented for sale publicly in North America, the upgraded DTM-spec, 5,000-km (3,106 miles) car we're offering is sure to catch a few eyes.

Alcazar

Drew Alcazar
CEO, Russo and Steele Auction Company, Scottsdale, AZ

Star Feature The unquestionable star of Russo and Steele's 2017 Scottsdale auction experience is our new venue location at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick. The incredible amenities and the enhanced ambiance at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick add an extra level of excitement and sophistication — with a concours-level environment. We are sure that every car featured at our 2017 flagship event will be a star!

Sleeper Cars The Ok-ko-joji Museum Collection featured at Russo and Steele Scottsdale is a diverse group of more than 30 highly maintained and loved collector automobiles ranging from pre-war survivor cars to 1950s Americana to the most-sought-after American muscle to classic European sports cars.

Another featured collection, the Missoula Museum Collection, will be at no reserve on the morning of Sunday, January 22.

Featuring more than 50 offerings spanning a quarter century, the Missoula Museum Collection covers nearly every category of desirability. From pre-war standards to 1940s and 1950s classics to the height of vintage British luxury (and even a fire truck!), the Missoula Museum Collection presents a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for every level collector.

Bonhams

Greisen

Jakob Greisen

Head of Bonhams' U.S. Motoring Department, Bonhams Auctions, San Francisco, CA

Star Car The ex-Mille Miglia, 24 Hours of Le Mans

Scuderia Ferrari 340 America Vignale Spyder.

This rare and historic sports racer, chassis 0196A, is replete with pedigree and provenance and is well documented by marque expert Marcel Massini.

It was a Ferrari Works team entry in the 1952 Mille Miglia, driven by Piero Taruffi, raced in the 24 Hours of Le Mans by Louis Rosier, and campaigned in that year's Targa Florio, Grand Prix of Bern, Pescara 12 Hours, Maloja-Saint Moritz Hill Climb, Grand Prix of Bari and more.

Just one of five original-specification cars built by Carrozzeria Vignale and only one of three updated to factory team specifications — enjoying nearly 40 more horsepower than its siblings — 0196A features many authentic distinctions that set it apart, such as the specially integrated air intakes, portholes and brake vents on the body, as well as its 340 MM performance specifications.

After its Scuderia Ferrari racing career, the car went back to both the Ferrari and the Vignale factories and was fitted with a bespoke coupé body for delivery to its first private owner. Subsequently rebodied back into its original racing form, this car is an exceptional and important car representing Ferrari's early efforts on the road to world domination.

Sleeper Car The highly original 1964 Porsche 904 GTS.

Considered by many cognoscenti to be one of the finest Porsche sports racers in history, the 904 is without a doubt also one of the most iconic cars of the mid-20th century. The particular car, chassis 904098, is a true rarity in that it boasts a solid, unblemished history and still retains its original body, engine and interior — attributes very seldom found these days.

Delivered new to legendary Florida dealership Brumos Porsche, this car — number 98 of 106 — was put away after just a few races and then sold to a prominent Porsche collector in Europe where it's remained for nearly 30 years.

As the first Porsche to utilize a ladder chassis and fiberglass body,

Barrett-Jackson star car — Stephen Tyler's Hennessey Venom GT Spyder

this pioneering model clinched a 1st overall at the Targa Florio, a 1st at Reims, five of the top 10 GT placements at Le Mans, and class wins at Spa and Sebring, among others — all in its first year.

With just over 100 produced in the course of two years, the 904 GTS as a model was not only tremendously successful but also very limited. To own one of these machines today is a privilege enjoyed by very few. And to own one as original and genuine as this is a rarity indeed.

is the first of only six convertibles ever built and is the world's fastest convertible sports car, reaching 265.6 mph during a test in March.

Adding to this supercar's star power will be Steven Tyler's presence at our Scottsdale auction when the car sells to benefit his charity, Janie's Fund.

The CERV 1 was Arkus-Duntov's personal Corvette engineering test bed, which was used to develop what the Corvette became in the early 1960s. It serves as one of the most important pieces of American automotive history.

Barrett-Jackson

Jackson

Craig Jackson

Chairman and CEO, Barrett-Jackson, Scottsdale, AZ

Star Cars There will be many star cars at Barrett-Jackson's 46th Annual Scottsdale Auction, but some of the most notable include Steven Tyler's Hennessey Venom GT Spyder, selling for charity, and Zora Arkus-Duntov's 1960 Chevrolet CERV 1.

The Venom GT Spyder

Sleeper Cars Something not often seen is the sale of a 150-car collection.

Something even rarer is seeing that collection selling as part of a larger auction and at no reserve, but that is what we're doing at Barrett-Jackson with the Charlie Thomas Collection, and it's something we've had tremendous success with in the past.

This collection is eclectic and has something for everyone — a good mix of pre-war, post-war, muscle and sports cars.

One of his spectacular European cars is a 1955 Mercedes-Benz 190SL dressed in DB40 Jet Black over Parchment leather and features wide whitewall tires. ■

Scottsdale 2017

1960 Chevrolet CERV 1

Insider's Tip Hundreds of thousands of people will walk through WestWorld's gates to see the spectacle that is Barrett-Jackson's premier auction.

Cars to buy could be the last thing you look at among the lounges, vendors and activities. The cars are there, however, in huge numbers. Barrett adjusts the tent configuration every year, but count on at least a mile from one end of the property to the other.

What fills the space remains the same — American muscle reigns supreme.

Many of the highlights this year comes from the Charlie Thomas Collection. Over 140 of his cars are consigned, ranging from a 1929 Studebaker President to a 1970 Plymouth Superbird 440 Six Pack.

Celebrity-owned cars, celebrity cars and resto-mods are another large chunk of Barrett's offerings. Make a game of finding as many celebrity cars as you can, such as Steven Tyler's Hennessey Venom GT.

Last year's results: 1,481 of 1,490 sold (99%), for total sales of $103,403,610.

Star Cars

1972 Plymouth Barracuda Hot Wheels "Snake II" Funny Car. The original restored Funny Car from the "Snake vs. Mongoose" match racing promotion from the early '70s. As great a performer as it is a piece of hot rod history, the Barracuda has set multiple performance records and won several awards.

body parts. Looking more like a Formula One car from its era, the CERV was designed for speed to test parts at levels unattainable by passenger cars. An engineering marvel and part of Chevrolet's developmental history.

1969 Chevrolet Corvette L88. One of just 216 L88 Corvettes and the recipient of the Triple Diamond award as well as several other accolades. One of the most desirable Corvettes in excellent condition.

2012 Hennessey Venom GT Spyder. One of only twelve Venom GTs and Aerosmith lead singer Steven Tyler's personal car. In pristine condition and being sold for Tyler's charity, Janie's Fund.

It's difficult to choose just one, but 150 cars from the Charlie Thomas Collection will be appearing at Arizona. Some notable examples representing American muscle from the collection include a 1970 Ford Mustang Boss 302, a 1970 Plymouth 'Cuda 440 Six Pack and a 1966 Pontiac GTO. ■

Insider's Tip

In 2016, RM Sotheby's pulled in an impressive $62.7m on 126 cars sold. That was good enough for their second-highest Arizona total ever. It also included the most valuable automobile in Arizona auction history: a $9.9m 1937 Mercedes-Benz 540k Special Roadster. For their 18th annual event, they will present over 120 cars from the most iconic marques at the stunning Arizona Biltmore Resort and Spa. Information for the pre-war classics to contemporary supercars will be available at RM Sotheby's "Access the Knowledge" booth, where you will find the history library and corresponding information and accessories for each lot.

Star Cars

1933 Chrysler CL Imperial dual-windshield phaeton, chassis no. 7803657, the stunning one-off and personal car of renowned automotive designer Ralph Roberts. One of the most important Chryslers ever built, and it is arguably one of the best-looking American Classics of all time. It has lived in some of the hobby's most respected collections, including those of the Milhous brothers and Otis Chandler. In recent years, it has enjoyed great success on the show field, including Best of Show at the Concours d'Elegance of America at St. John's, and Best in Class at the Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance. (Estimate: $1,400,000–$1,800,000)

1938 Bugatti Type 57 cabriolet. Chassis 57587, beautifully presented with rare coachwork by Letourneur et Marchand. (Estimate: $1,250,000–$1,500,000)

The Scottsdale Auction

1952 Ferrari 340 America Vignale Spyder

Insider's Tip For their sixth annual sale, Bonhams again expects a full crowd at their beautiful, accessible location — the Westin Kierland Resort & Spa. Racing and sports cars will be the name of the game this year for Bonhams, but expect fine selections from classic luxury and modern performance. After all, a 2015 McLaren P1 was last year's high sale at $2,090,000, and it shared the podium with a 1962 Mercedes-Benz 300SL Roadster at $1.5m and a 1971 Ferrari 365 GTB/4 Daytona coupe at $1.2m. It shouldn't surprise anyone if Bonhams tops last year's $18m with their selection this year.

Last year's results: 94 of 112 sold (84%), for total sales of $18,038,250.

Star Cars 1952 Ferrari 340 America Vignale Spyder. Just one of five original-specification cars built at Carrozzeria Vignale and only one of three uprated to factory team specifications. Not only has this historic sports racer competed in period in some of the world's greatest motor races, but it has also participated in the Mille Miglia Storica, Monterey Historic Races and the Monaco Historic Grand Prix.

1964 Porsche 904 GTS. Delivered new to legendary Florida dealership Brumos Porsche, this car was put away after just a few races and then sold to a prominent Porsche collector in Europe, where it remained for nearly 30 years. As the first Porsche to utilize a ladder chassis and fiberglass body, this pioneering model clinched a 1st overall at the Targa Florio, a 1st at Reims, five of the top 10 GT placements at Le Mans, and class wins at Spa and Sebring.

1966 Ferrari 275 GTB. A desirable late-production, long-nose example with torque tube driveline, it's the

Arizona in January

1971 Plymouth Satellite Plus

Insider's Tip More than 400 cars are expected to cross the auction block at this three-day event at the We-Ko-Pa Resort. The first hour of each day begins with 80 lots of select memorabilia, and then the cars flow in from the surrounding parking lot. Count on seeing many appealing collector cars change hands at realistic prices. Silver's low-key sale, less than 30 minutes outside Scottsdale, is a great change of pace during the frenetic Arizona Auction Week. It also has the best sunrise and sunset views of any auction venue.

Last year's results: 281 of 484 sold (58%), for total sales of $3,919,918.

Star Cars 1971 Plymouth Satellite Plus

The engine makes 425 horsepower with a 440-ci V8, 727 slap-stick auto with full manual valve body.

Gooding & Company

The Scottsdale Auctions

1969 AMC AMX/3 by Bizzarrini

Insider's Tip

Gooding & Company's Scottsdale auction will be their 10th. Their collection of offerings is, as always, blue-chip and carefully selected. At the 2016 sale, Gooding sold 96 of 113 lots for $42.4m. This included nine lots that cracked the million-dollar barrier, with a $6.5m 1950 Ferrari 166 MM/195 S topping the list.

Scottsdale Fashion Square Mall right next door provides sufficient parking and less-expensive shopping endeavors compared with the $441,521 average Gooding pulled in per car last year. Expect a diverse catalog offering again, with heavy emphasis on post-war European sports cars, pre-war luxury classics and a dash of modern supercar performance.

Last year's results: 96 of 113 sold (85%), for total sales of $42,386,050.

Star Cars

1925 Bugatti Type 35 Grand Prix (Estimate: $2.6m–$3.2m). This model was purchased new in Paris by Standard Oil heir Wallis Clinton Bird. With just three owners, this Type 35 has been lovingly tended to and remains in excellent condition.

2017 Arizona Concours d'Elegance

Now in its fourth year, this event is a classy, relaxing way to start Arizona Auction Week — and the car lineup is stellar

By Carl Bomstead

The Arizona Concours is young but has become one of the premier boutique events in the car collecting world

The fourth annual Arizona Concours d'Elegance will be held January 15 on the historic grounds of the Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired Arizona Biltmore Resort. SCMer Keith Martin and Donald Osborne return for their third year as emcees.

As the kickoff to Arizona Auction Week, the Arizona Concours, in just a few short years, has become one of the premier boutique events in the country. As such, it is able to attract the most significant of collector automobiles.

The manicured grounds of the Arizona Biltmore provide the ideal setting to present the 100 or so selected automobiles as they combine the eclectic, timeless styling of the Biltmore with the intimacy of a Great Gatsby Garden Party.

This year's concours will feature the cars of Ettore and Jean Bugatti, the Coachwork of Vignale and Lincolns of the Classic Era.

The stunning 1936 Bugatti 57SC from the Mullin Automobile Museum is worth the price of admission, as it is an iconic design from Jean Bugatti. The 57SC is both rare and elegant, and this will be a unique opportunity to view this spectacular car.

The concours will sponsor a series of seminars on Saturday. Monday features the Tour d'Elegance, with many of the concours cars presented in Old Town Scottsdale.

The Arizona Concours benefits Make-a-Wish Arizona and is the ideal venue to start your Auction Week experience. ■

Details

Where: The Arizona Biltmore Resort, 2400 E. Missouri Ave., Phoenix, AZ 85016

When: January 15, 2017, 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Cost: $60 to attend Saturday's seminars, $80 for Concours Sunday admission (if you buy tickets at least two weeks before January 15)

Insider's tip: Now in its fourth year, this concours is a welcome addition to a week that has been mostly about car auctions. The Arizona Concours is a well-presented, relaxing event that gets everyone ready for a frenetic week of collector-car auctions

A Feast for Your Eyes

Picturesque scenery and winding mountain roads wait for you just north of Scottsdale

By Sam Stockham

Chapel of the Holy Cross — voted one of the seven man-made wonders of Arizona

Scottsdale in January is nothing short of spectacular. After the new year, this town becomes a mecca for the car lover, and the pilgrimage brings in motorheads from all over the world. Personally, I love the crisp desert mornings when the auctions roar to life, complete with the wafting smell of hydrocarbons, fresh gourmet coffee and an overtone of money burning in someone's pocket.

But let's say that you find yourself with an extra day before the L88 you want runs at Russo, or your big buy at Gooding is two days off. Why not take some time to go for a drive and experience the splendor that is Arizona in the winter? As you travel north out of Phoenix, some of the most picturesque scenery and winding mountain roads lie just south of Sedona.

A wonder of the world

Traveling up the I-17 past Camp Verde, you'll find a nondescript turn-off at Exit 298. Dubbed at some point the "All-American Road," State Route 179 seems innocuous enough within the first mile.

However, as you round an early bend, red clay begins to speckle the landscape and quickly turns to a mysterious and powerful deep auburn. Winding through the roughly eight-mile stretch is a treat in a small roadster. As you come into Oak Creek Village, small shops and restaurants try to be relevant while still blending in with the surrounding natural beauty.

Winding through the traffic-control chicanes, you come up to a turn-off for the Chapel of the Holy Cross. This was voted one of the seven man-made wonders of Arizona in 2007 and is an engineering marvel in its simplicity. If the engineering ingenuity of the 70-foot cross built into the rock is not enough to turn your head, the views going up the short winding road will be.

Food and drink

As you continue through Sedona, leaving on State Route 89A, the scenery is a bit more spread out but still quite magical. As you settle into an open four-lane road, make sure you take a left onto Page Springs Road. Page Springs Road is home to a few small wineries, including the appropriately named Page Springs Cellars and the Javelina Leap Winery.

Before the winery tours, make sure you stop for a bite to eat at the Up the Creek Bistro. This is a family favorite of ours, and you can find yourself losing a good amount of time staring out the windows overlooking Oak Creek and enjoying a local vintage barreled just up the road.

ue on to Cottonwood and Jerome, where there is an abundance of adventure to be had.

A few considerations before you gas up: The first, the I-17 out of Phoenix is the most direct route, but will do nothing for your driving spirit. It's the only path for semis, and speeds generally exceed 80 mph, with the exception of the hills. The solution here may be to rent a Polaris Slingshot at Sedona Slingshot Rentals for the topless driving experience and leave highway duty to your new BMW.

The next consideration would be to check the weather report. Traveling north of the valley guarantees that the weather will be at the very least a few degrees cooler. Snow is possible in Sedona, but it's not the norm, as the days are typically in the high 50s. But do bring a scarf and driving gloves with fingers — you'll feel a little more akin to Stirling Moss that way.

If you've got the time, Arizona in January is a beautiful place to explore. Just be sure you're back in time for your date with the auction block. ■

“Why Do We Collect?”

A Lively, Interactive Discussion with Collector Car Professionals

With Donald Osborne as Emcee

Featured on “Jay Leno’s Garage” on CNBC

Join Donald Osborne, Steve Serio, Colin Comer, Mark Hyman and Carl Bomstead in a wide-ranging conversation on the role and rules of collecting in a changed and changing market.

Audience participation is greatly encouraged as we share strong opinions about the reasons each of us want, buy, sell or hold collector cars and why you should as well.

Topics will include, but hardly be limited to:

- Where has the market been, where is it going and should you care?
- Smart collecting
- Should you ever want to restore a car?
- How, when and where to buy
- How, when and where to sell
- Can the market be “read”?

We guarantee you won't think about collecting in the same way after this session.

Hunting Automotive Wildlife

A brief guide to fantastic beasts and where to find them

By Jim Pickering

A Ferrari 360 spider tucked away in a parking garage

Scottsdale may be all about the auctions, but it's also about car people like us, and deep down we're all car hunters — the type who can call out a year, make and model from the shape of its taillight at 50 yards and 50 mph.

Any time you get thousands of car people together in one town for one week of events, you get thousands of cool cars as well. They'll be everywhere, from hotels to restaurants to cruising in traffic. Where should you go if you want to see them gathered together? Here are a few of my favorite places.

Every Saturday from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m., classics and hot rods head to the McDonald's Rock 'n' Roll Classic Car Show at the Scottsdale Pavilions. Average turnout is anywhere from 250 to 500 cars, although it's always bigger in January. The event is free. Find it at 8800-9199 E. Talking Stick Way, Scottsdale, AZ 85250.

Cars & Coffee

Every first Saturday of the month, there's a Cars & Coffee gathering at Scuderia Southwest, located at Gainey Village. Cars start gathering here around 5 a.m. Again, it's free. Address is 8787 N. Scottsdale Road, Scottsdale, AZ 85253 — but this only applies if you're going to be in town early, as this year's auction events take place after the show.

On every third Saturday — which this year falls right into the middle of auction week — the Penske Racing Museum hosts its own Cars & Coffee event as well, with winter hours of 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. Check it out at 7125 E. Chauncey Lane, Scottsdale, AZ 85054.

Auction parking lots

The Barrett-Jackson, Russo and Steele, Bonhams, Gooding, RM Sotheby's, Worldwide and Silver auctions are why everyone's here, right? Look in their parking lots for interesting stuff.

Barrett-Jackson's desert lots are massive, but you're going to see everything from new supercars to classic hot rods out in the sandy expanse. It's the same story at Russo and Steele as well, although with the company's new venue this year, parking should be considerably less dusty.

Be sure to also check out the Scottsdale Fashion Square, where Gooding & Co. posts up, and the Arizona Biltmore, where RM Sotheby's hosts their sale. Both feature parking structures that can make for interesting photos and good sounds as V10 and V12 engines bark and growl among the concrete columns. ■

Barrett-Jackson

THE WORLD'S GREATEST COLLECTOR CAR AUCTIONS

JANUARY 14-22 | SCOTTSDALE, AZ

PRESENTING THE
CHARLIE THOMAS COLLECTION

It takes a real car guy to build a world-class car collection — someone who dreamed about cars from a young age, got his hands dirty, and made a living in the world of automobiles. Charlie Thomas is just that type of car guy, and the collection he has built is as impressive as the man himself. Barrett-Jackson is pleased to be offering over 140 outstanding vehicles from the Charlie Thomas Collection at the upcoming Scottsdale auction.

1956 MERCEDES-BENZ 190SL ROADSTER

Fully restored with factory parts, except for the radio with tape player and Mikuni carburetors. New factory shock absorbers, new tires, factory brakes and brake power booster. The car has a new factory soft-top; the factory hardtop is also included. The Navy Blue interior features all-new factory upholstery. Features a 1.9-liter engine with 4-speed manual transmission.
